Rev. Wallace Radcliffe Urges Movement for More Stringent Hunting Laws.

"WOMEN ROB BIRDS"

Minister Would Stop Demand for Attractive Wearing Apparel. Humane Society Elects.

Decrying the practice of killing game, especially birds, for the purpose of supplying the demands of women for attractive wearing apparet. Rev. Wallace Radeliffs, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, in an address last night of the annual meeting of the Washington Humans Society, in the Arilington, urged a movement for the snachment of more stringent hunting laws.

"The society has done a noble work during the past year," asid Dr. Radeliffs, but I think that some movement should be inaugurated aiming to prevent the crueity that for purposes of mere gain robs the hird of its life, of its beauty, and of its cheerfulness, so that woman, through the payment of a few dollars, may array berself in what her fancy craves. To this practice I have nothing but words of strong condemnation. Here is a field for this organization to act."

In speaking of the work of the society during the past year Mr. Hutchin pointed out the need of a free animal dispensary for the District, several mote ambulances for conducting the work of the society, and a shelter fee small animals, such as cats and dogs.

Tribute to the Horse.

Tribute to the Horse.

"The horse is the most unforunate animal on the face of the earth," said Mr. Hutchina. "In Germany and France the horse, after being worked to death, is eaten in America we work the horse to death, but we have respect enough for htminnt to awallow his feels. I dare any, however, that the horse would be entitling to compromise and be short and eaten rather than work for some Americans. We now the horse a tribute.
